The piano introduction is in 2/4 time. The right hand features a melody of eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of eighth notes. The piece concludes with a final chord in the right hand.

The first system of the song. The vocal line begins with the lyrics: "Our Bud-dies they have gone o-ver to France, To end this war and give them a Wil-son's at the head of our great na-tion, Call-ing loud for the sol-diers ra-". The piano accompaniment continues with the same rhythmic pattern as the introduction.

The second system of the song. The vocal line continues with the lyrics: "chance, To be free, to be free in the strick-en land of France, The tions, To be sent o-ver there to the strick-en land of France, And". The piano accompaniment remains consistent.

The third system of the song. The vocal line concludes with the lyrics: "French wel-come them with a God bless you, And linked their flag with the mil-lions of pa-tri-ots staunch and true, Will all work to-geth-er". The piano accompaniment ends with a final chord.

Our Bud - dies they have gone to France, Hoo - ray, Hoo - ray with dear Old Glo - ry float - ing high, O'er the brav - est hearts un - der the sky, — Then a - way to the call of the strick - en land of France.

3
 The Buddies and Poillus together stand,
 With the Tommies too at their right hand,
 Away across the sea in the stricken land of France,
 Right will conquer might in this disaster,
 Hasten in along and hurry faster,
 Then away to the call of the stricken land of France.

4
 The mothers and wives so brave and so true,
 Gave up their boys with a God bless you,
 To the call, to the call and so gave our boys a chance,
 To help to make the nations great and strong,
 Like our United States is still our song,
 Then away to the call of the stricken land of France.
