say The sol-dier made this last re-quest be-fore he pass'd a way.
way He'd take him back and bu-ry him in Dix-ie-land some-day.

Oh send me home to Dix-ie Jack that's where I want to lie, Be-neath the fra-grant Jas-mine and the star-ry south-ern sky Near the old home-like cot-tage where I play'd at moth-er's knee And right be-side my Dix-ie bride dear Jack please bu-ry me.
