MAR 11 1918

THE SOLDIER BOYS

©CLE422503

Words by MARY A. HAROLD Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

NORTH AMERICAN MUSIC PUBLISHING CO.
119 No. Clark St. Chicago, Ill.

THE SOLDIER BOYS

Words by MARY A. HAROLD

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

Copyright MCMXVIII by Miss Mary A. Harrold fight for free-dom like a true Yan-kee lad, They are all brave each one will-sus - stain and en - cour-age them to be wise, Not one will be a slacker will fight un - til Li - ber - ty's won the day, Then with col - ors a - bove them ing to take a chance, And they're glad they can go and help poor stricken France.

a cow-ard or knave, And they'll prove to the world that all Yan-kees are brave.
the Red, White and Blue, They'll re-turn to their coun-try and moth-er and you.
CHORUS March Time
The Yan - kee lads are true and true, They nev-er stop but do and do, The things they know are right to do, You'll find them true thru and thru.