Why should you claim — ex — emp — tion from draft, When your coun — try is call — ing you, — Go get — your gun, say,
Just tell old Ger — man — y furl your flag, For we're go — ing to get your tag, — And tell — old Aus — try

It'll be the staff of the Red and White and Blue, — Tell your dear moth — er — and sis — ters don't cry, bet — ter make friends For we'll fight un — til we wip, — Tell our dear France to — be not dis — may — ed,

Tell your dear fa — ther and sweet heart don't sigh, And tell Un — cle Sam here am I' Send me, Send me, — Send me.
For we are coming to give you our aid, Tell the al — lies to send back our men when e'er the war — they win.

CHORUS

With the rose of old Eng-land, the li - ly of France, We'll guard hu-man-i - ty's rights, —

We'll make our terms of peace with war, We'll cease or we'll fight with all our might, With A - mer - i - ca's em - blem and old It - a - ly, — We'll all u - nite and our slo - gan will be, We'll fight Cen - tral pow'rs on land and on sea, To save De - moc - ra - cy. — With the cy. —
