The great world war is o - ver now, our boys are com - ing home, To Our Na - vy took a lead - ing part, to bring our boys a - cross, To We have a small Ma - rine corps too, but ev - 'ry one a man; At meet their friends and sweet - hearts too, from far a - cross the foam; They guard them from the sub - ma - rine, and all the oth - er foes; They Cha - teau Thier - ry it was proved, and oth - er for - eign land; The helped to whip the Ger - mans from the Marne back to the Rhine, And hun - ted U boats day and night from day - light un - til dark, They Ger - mans did not like their style of fight - ing, it is true; Our freed old France and Bel-gium from the yoke of Ger-man swine.

stood their watch and plant-ed mines and took it as a lark, draft-ed men are just the same with old Red, White and Blue.

CHORUS

Three cheers for all the Yan-kee boys, _____ and the dear old Red,

White and Blue; _____ They are there _____ when they are need-ed, _____ And are al-ways staunch and true. _____
