©CLE428780
JUL 22 1918

Through The Lines

Words by HERBERT ROWLEY
Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

M1646
.F

NORTH AMERICAN
MUSIC PUBLISHING CO.
119 No. Clark St. Chicago, Ill.

Through the Lines

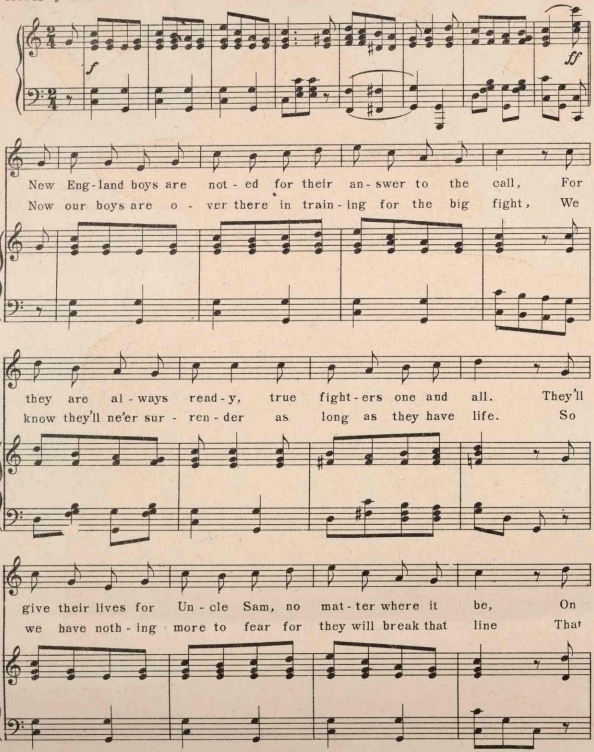
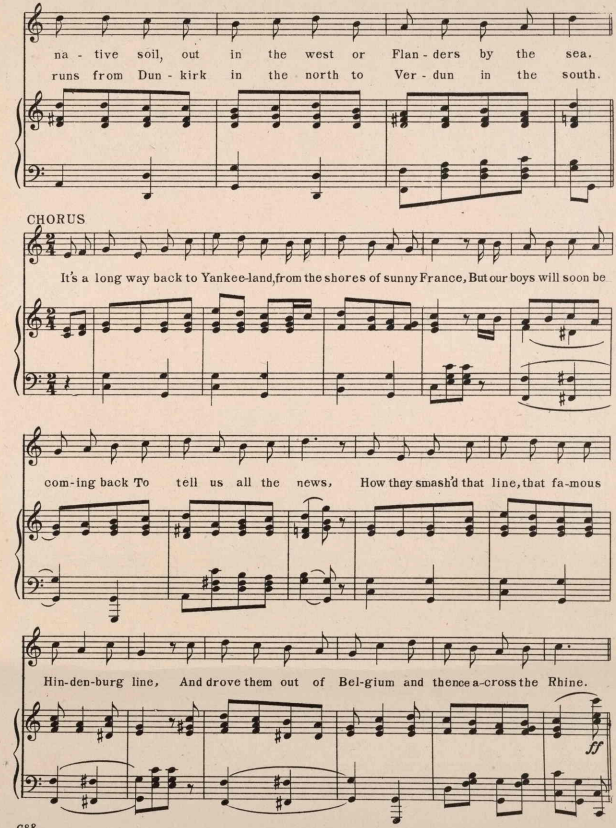
Words by HERBERT ROWLEY

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN



Copyright 1918 by Herbert Rowley



na - tive soil, out in the west or Flan - ders by the sea.
runs from Dun - kirk in the north to Ver - dun in the south.
CHORUS
It's a long way back to Yankee-land, from the shores of sunny France, But our boys will soon be com-ing back To tell us all the news, How they smash'd that line, that fa-mous Hin-den-burg line, And drove them out of Bel-gium and thence a-cross the Rhine.
ff

430504