

©RE491552 OCT -2 1918

TO A SOLDIER'S SWEETHEART

Words by
A. G. WILSON
Music by
LEO FRIEDMAN

M1646

F

NORTH AMERICAN MUSIC PUBLISHING CO.
119 No. Clark St., Chicago, Ill.

To A Soldiers Sweetheart

Words by A.G. WILSON

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

The musical score is written in 2/4 time and marked 'Moderato'. It consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The vocal line is in a single melodic line with lyrics written below the notes.

You smil'd when last I
You smil'd when last I
You smil'd when last I saw you, tho your eyes were fill'd with tears For you know that I saw you, and that smile has fol-lowed me From day to day no saw you, and tho bul - lets fall like hail And can - nons roar and must go far a - way ——— To fight my coun-try's bat-tle and be mat - ter where I roam ——— It brings to me sweet mem'-ries and one gas - es suf - fo - cate ——— I know that you are wait - ing and your

Copyright 1918 by A.G. Wilson

gone per - haps for years, Yet not once did you ev - er bid me stay. —
 dear sweet face I see, The face that smil'd at me when I left home. — love will nev - er fail, That smile brings back my cour - age dar - ling Kate. —

CHO.
 You smil'd when last I saw you, and the I per chance may die On bat - tle fields so far a way and drear I know that I will meet you in that land be - yond the sky You still will smile a wel - come to me dear. —

441948