

WHY I'VE FIGHTING

Words by Mrs. W. T. BURT

Music by
LEO FRIEDMAN

NORTH AMERICAN
MUSIC PUBLISHING Co.
119 No. Clark St., Chicago, Ill.

Why Ise Fighting

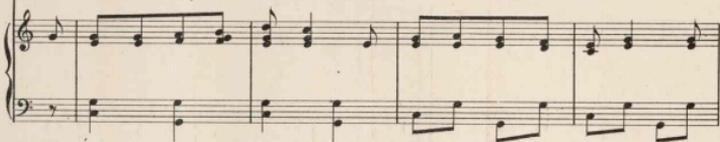

Words by Mrs. W. T. BURT

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

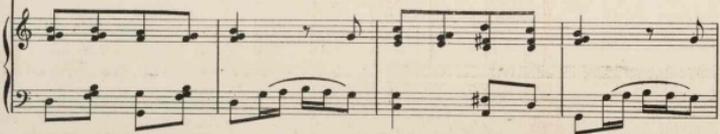

Piano introduction in 3/4 time, featuring a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.

I lived a - way down yon - der, an' dis I well re - mem - ber, Dem
I had a sweet - heart hon - ey, She, had - n't an - y mon - cy, But Piano accompaniment for the first verse, continuing the melody and bass line.

sweet ta - ters did grow, Great big uns in a row; Dem when she rolled dem eyes, I knew dey wuz no spies; For Piano accompaniment for the second verse, continuing the melody and bass line.

Pos - som good we caught 'em, Right on a limb we got 'em, Gosh, but her Ise been a fight - in', An' aw - ful wrong Ise right - in' And now

Piano accompaniment for the third verse, continuing the melody and bass line.

was - 'nt Pos - som good, Where ta - ters an' gra - vy stood?
 all this fight - in's thru, My gal, I will come to you.

CHORUS

When we come home, Hab de fid - dle an' de drum. At de ole but door once more! Gee! we'll hab a feast,

With no fear of beast, An' we'll dance 'till cur foots am sore.

