Piano introduction in 2/4 time, key of D major. The right hand plays chords and single notes, while the left hand plays a rhythmic accompaniment. The piece ends with a fermata and the instruction "S...".

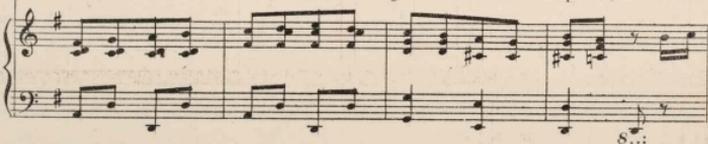

Vocal line 1 in 2/4 time, key of D major. The melody is simple and rhythmic. The lyrics are: Kai-ser Wil-liam left Ber- lin, For a trip a-round the world, He Un-cle Sam-my watched the game, And un-til his blood fair boiled, Then Piano accompaniment for the first vocal line, in 2/4 time, key of D major. It features a steady rhythmic accompaniment with chords in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.

Vocal line 2 in 2/4 time, key of D major. The melody continues with the lyrics: had his Prus-sian guards dolled up, And had his mus-tache curled; He warned old Kai-ser Wil-ly that, His game would soon be spoiled; Those Piano accompaniment for the second vocal line, in 2/4 time, key of D major. It continues the rhythmic accompaniment with chords and a bass line.

Vocal line 3 in 2/4 time, key of D major. The melody continues with the lyrics: struck a-cross to Bel-gi-um with His hung-ry hounds and guns, But Yank-ee boys fought val-i-ant-ly, The right a-gainst the wrong, And Piano accompaniment for the third vocal line, in 2/4 time, key of D major. It concludes the piece with a final chord and a fermata.
