March tempo

Piano introduction in 2/4 time, marked 'March tempo'. The music is in G major and consists of two staves. The right hand features a melody with eighth and quarter notes, while the left hand provides a rhythmic accompaniment with chords and eighth notes. A dynamic marking of f (forte) is present at the end of the introduction.

First system of the song. The vocal line begins with the lyrics: "Peo - ple may come and peo - ple may go, But there's one I". The piano accompaniment continues with the same rhythmic pattern as the introduction. The lyrics "All that he has done for our coun - try, Nev - er was e -" are written below the vocal line.

Second system of the song. The vocal line continues with the lyrics: "have in mind, Whose soul will live in our". The piano accompaniment features a more active melody in the right hand. The lyrics "qualled be - fore, All our sons will - ing - ly" are written below the vocal line.

Third system of the song. The vocal line concludes with the lyrics: "mem - o - ry, As a bless - ing to all man - kind." and "by him stand, Do - ing their bit to win this war." The piano accompaniment concludes with a final chord. The lyrics "mem - o - ry, As a bless - ing to all man - kind." are written below the vocal line, and "by him stand, Do - ing their bit to win this war." are written below the piano accompaniment.
