Words by PEARL Mc MILLAN

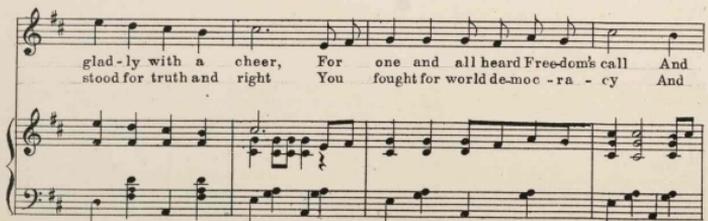

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

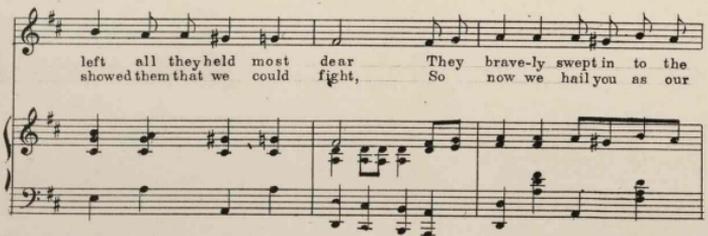

Piano introduction in G major, 2/4 time. The right hand plays a melody of eighth and quarter notes, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

Our boys in kha-ki are re-turn-ing, Greet them
You fought with cour-age all un-daun-ted, For you glad-ly with a cheer, For one and all heard Free-dom's call And stood for truth and right You fought for world de-moc-ra-cy And left all they held most dear They brave-ly swept in to the showed them that we could fight, So now we hail you as our con - flict But they' ount all this worth while To he - roes As you\ come back from the fray, And win a kiss from some brave miss And hear her tell them with a smile:

 ev - 'ry - where we do de - clare We love our Yanks of U. S. A.

CHORUS

Oh you ir - re - sis - ti - ble Yank, You've helped to save the day And I am proud of you, my he - ro, true, My Yank of the U. S. A.
