©CLE431870
OCT -9 1918

I'LL DO THE FIGHTING
YOU BACK ME
SONG

Words by JAMES SMITH.

Music by HARRY FRANKLIN.

JAMES SMITH
886 Crane Ave. Detroit, Mich.

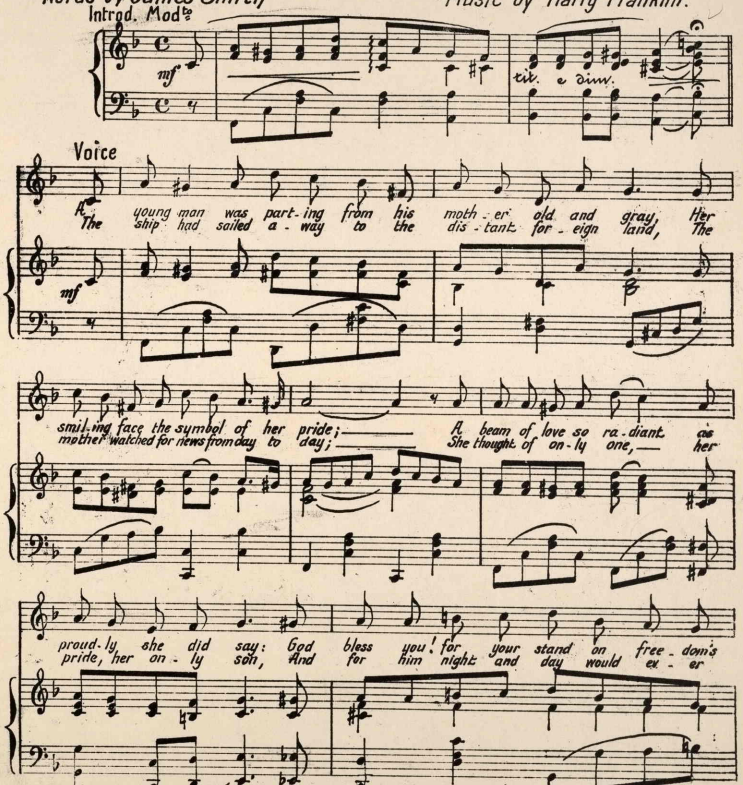
M1646
F

I'll Do The Fighting - You Back Me.

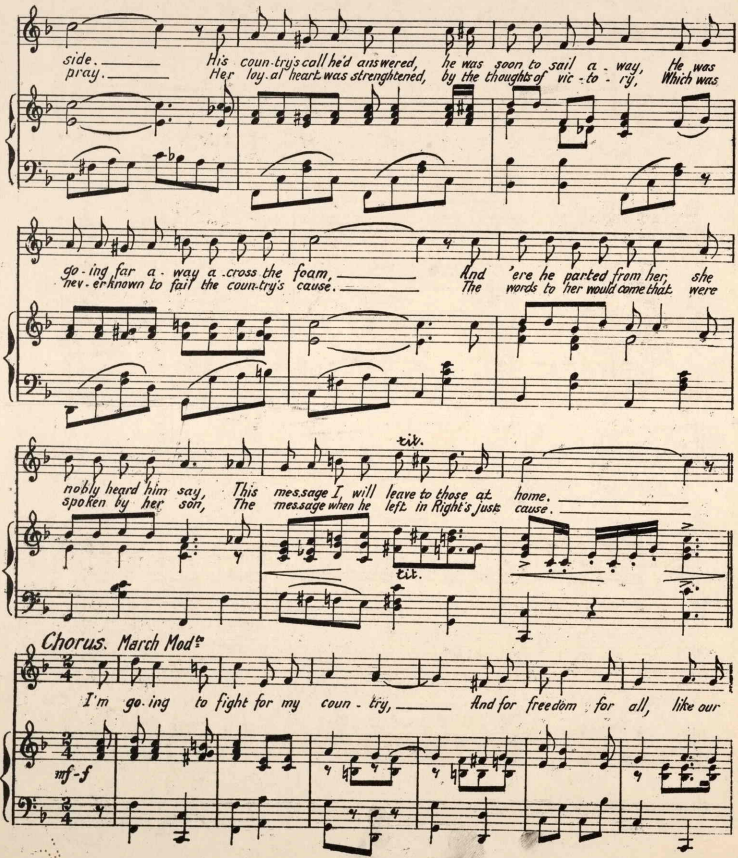
(With Powder And Something To Chew)

Words by James Smith

Music by Harry Franklin.



Copyright 1918 by James Smith - 886 Crane Ave. Detroit, Mich.



side. His coun-try's call he'd answered, he was soon to sail a - way, He was pray. Her lov-al heart was strengthened, by the thoughts of vic - to - ry, Which was go-ing far a - way a-cross the foam, And 'ere he parted from her, she nev-er known to fail the coun-try's cause. The words to her would come that were riv.
nobly heard him say, This message I will leave to those at home.
spoken by her son, The message when he left in Right's just cause.
rit.
Chorus. March Mod^te I'm go-ing to fight for my coun - try, And for freedom for all, like our mf-f own; I'll give all that I have for my coun-try, A coward, I'll nev-er be known. When I'm gone to the front do not let me, Want for pow-der and something to chew; While I do the fighting you back me, That is all I will ask for from you.

441103