Knights of Co-lum-bus you are a true friend, — A rea- dy Knights of Co-lum-bus I'm writ-ing to say, — I found a hand you al-ways lend — When all the world seems so dis-mal and drear — gold-en hour to day — Your ser-vice hut built so sim-ple and plain —

Your sign of wel-come brings ev-'ry-one cheer, — Our fight-ing
Was like a pic-ture of my home a-gain, — When ev-er men will nev-er for-get — The no-ble work you do. —

I am lone-some and blue — I'll know just what to do. —

For all the com-fort and shel-ter too They all give their thanks to you.
 And like each sol-dier and sail-or too I send God's bless-ing to you.

Chorus
 For there's a wel-come al-ways wait-ing In the lit-tle hut I find most ev-ry where, It's full of hap-pi-ness and sun-shine And good fel-low-ship to ban-ish ev-ry care There some bod-y's lit-tle moth-er Will greet me smil-ing-ly; No mat-ter where I roam I'll al-ways be at home In the hut of the K. of C. For there's a K. of C. Sua...

Dear Sir and Brother:

You should know that in giving me an opportunity to hear the song "THE HUT OF THE K. OF C.", written by Corporal Frank Goodman, C.P.O., Arthur Franklin and Private Lawrence Franklin, I was afforded a real pleasure. The song exemplifies in an admirable and effective manner the spirit of the K. of C. work.

That this song was written by men in the service and sung for the first time at the performance of "WHAT NEXT", a play in which the cast was composed of service men exclusively, are deeply significant facts. Certainly no more fitting birthplace could have been found for the official song of the K. of C.

Faternally yours,

Maurice Breen
Chairman.
