

Everyone Can Lick the Kaiser if He Wants To

MAR - 1 1918

Words and Music by HAROLD A. FREY

Moderato

In march time

Deliberato

My brother Jim he tried to join the ar-my, He was going to do his bit. But he My sis-ter came home one night cry-in sad-ly Said she wished she was a boy But she Our fam-ilies helping lick the kal-ser glad-ly We've joined the Red Cross now Dad-dy

*Deliberato
mf*

could-n't pass the test, Something wrong in-side his chest. He was sad as he could be. But the was-n't one so there, And she pulled her cur-ly hair. She was sad as she could be. But our bought us all a bond, Brother Jack's a -cross the pond. We're con-serv-ing too you see. Sis-ter's sadly dim f

doc-tor stepped right up be-side our Jim-my, And he said to him "Don't fear You have Jim-my stepped right up be-side his sis-ter As he said to her "Don't cry, You have knit-ting socks and sweaters for the Sammies, So is ma and grad-ma too Ev-ry

f

got a great big chance ev-en if you don't see France. Here's something you should hear?
 got a great big chance ev-en if you don't see France. And here's the reason why?
 bod-ys got a chance, to help our boys in France. Pray are you help ing too?

f rit

CHORUS marcato
with pep

Ev-ry one can lick the kaiser if he wants to, If he dont with sword and gun. There are con spirito f

many other ways, And ev-ry blamd one pays When your country fights the Hun. What could our gal-lant

f rit a tempo f

Sammies do with out us? If we did-nt back them here. So lets work with 'all our might, And we'll

f ff mf cresc sure-ly win this fight. And send old kaiser Wil-llam on his ear. Ev-ry ear.

ff mark well

Get "APRIL SHOWERS" a charming Reverie composed by Harold Frey at the age of 11. Grade IV 12¢ Prepaid

Send to Harold Frey, 216 Moore St., Berlin, Wis., U.S.A.

Everyone can lick the Kaiser 2