The piano introduction is in 2/4 time, marked with a forte (f) dynamic. It features a rhythmic accompaniment in the right hand with eighth and sixteenth notes, and a bass line in the left hand with quarter notes and rests.

What is the land and Coun-try's pride, The Em-blem of the Stars and Stripes, From What is the land where free-dom lives, That chanc-es rich and poor does give, To What is the land a Wash-ington, In ear-ly youth and life be-gun, A

The first line of the song features a vocal melody in the right hand and piano accompaniment in the left hand. The lyrics are: "What is the land and Coun-try's pride, The Em-blem of the Stars and Stripes, From What is the land where free-dom lives, That chanc-es rich and poor does give, To What is the land a Wash-ington, In ear-ly youth and life be-gun, A".

sun-rise in the morn-ing bright, Till sun sets in the eve-ning light, Now it ed-u-cate and grad-u-ate, And Pa-triot-is-m in-cul-cate, To ma-mar-ty Lin-cola on his knees, In fer-vent pray-ers did suc-ceed, And when

The second line of the song continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "sun-rise in the morn-ing bright, Till sun sets in the eve-ning light, Now it ed-u-cate and grad-u-ate, And Pa-triot-is-m in-cul-cate, To ma-mar-ty Lin-cola on his knees, In fer-vent pray-ers did suc-ceed, And when".

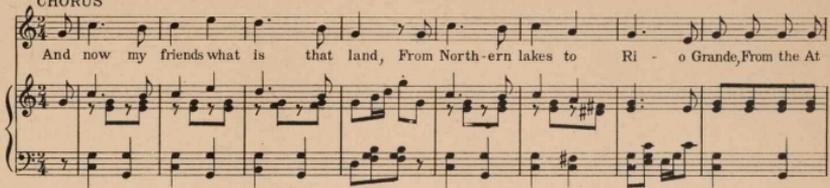

is the land of song so sweet, And ev-'ry ham-let, school-house greet, My ture and work a new e-poch, Will strive to gain and with our pluck, That Gar-field was in tor-ture bound, And God's own Grace for it was found, That

The third line of the song concludes the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "is the land of song so sweet, And ev-'ry ham-let, school-house greet, My ture and work a new e-poch, Will strive to gain and with our pluck, That Gar-field was in tor-ture bound, And God's own Grace for it was found, That".
