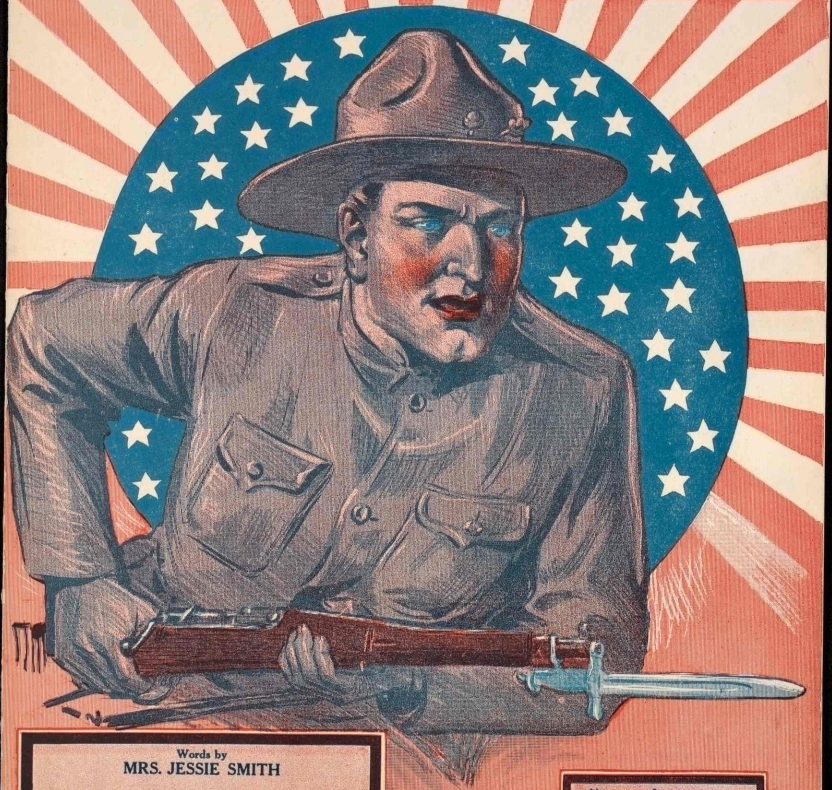
©CLE 117382
FEB 27 1918

THE BOY IN BLUE



Words by
MRS. JESSIE SMITH

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

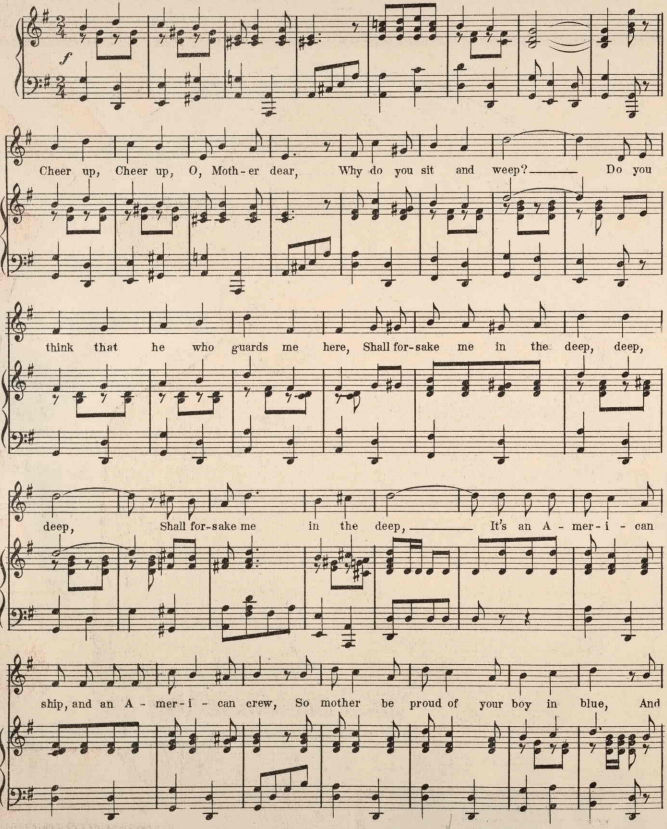
M1646
F

NORTH AMERICAN
MUSIC PUBLISHING CO.
119 No. Clark St. Chicago, Ill.

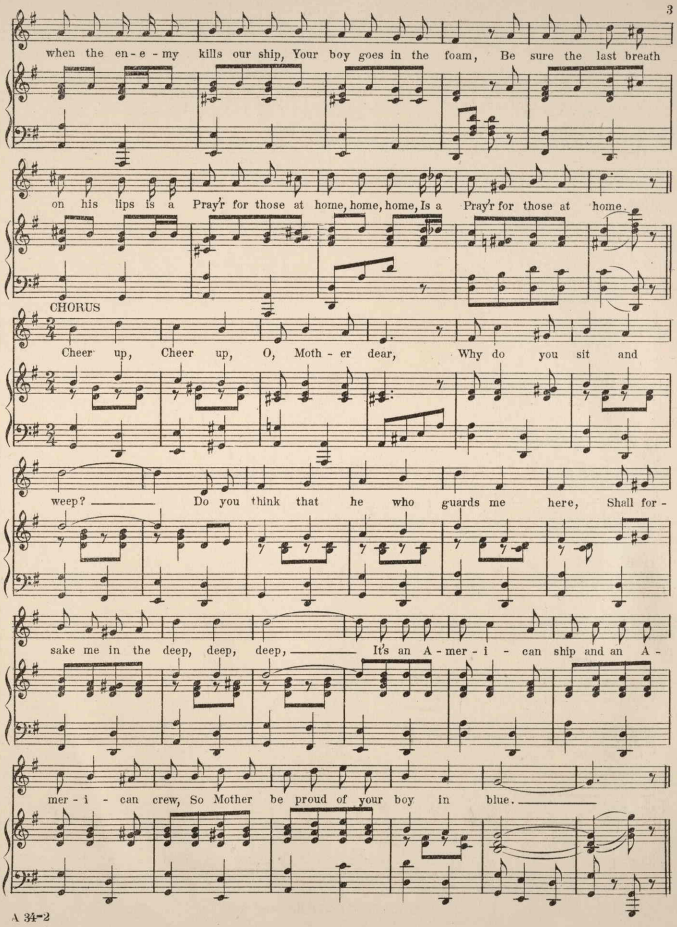
THE BOY IN BLUE

Words by
MRS. JESSIE SMITH

Music by
LEO FRIEDMAN



Copyright MCMXVIII by Mrs Jessie Smith



when the en - e - my kills our ship, Your boy goes in the foam, Be sure the last breath on his lips is a Pray'r for those at home, home, home, Is a Pray'r for those at home.
CHORUS
Cheer up, Cheer up, O, Moth - er dear, Why do you sit and weep? Do you think that he who guards me here, Shall for - sake me in the deep, deep, deep, It's an A - mer - i - can ship and an A - mer - i - can crew, So Mother be proud of your boy in blue.

426373