Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

You've heard the sto-ries of war-ri-ors bold, who bled and died in The flag they car-ried and in its fold, Peace love and hope and day of old; But nev-er, since the a-ges rolled, such free-dom's goal; Now war is done, the vic-trys won, They're won-drous sto-ries have been told, They sailed a-way, aon the way to home sweet home, Back to the land of cross the sea, Helped win the great est vic-to-ry; They marched so peace and rest, Back to the ones who love them best; Oh, wel-come, brave - ly to the fray, _____ Our boys of the U. S. A. _____ wel - come home to stay, _____ Our boys of the U. S. A. _____

CHORUS

The boys of the U. S. A., _____ Sons of the blue and gray, _____ With hearts so true and just and brave, Their lives, their best, their all they gave; _____ March - ing 'neath the Red, White and Blue, _____ Fought for right and free - dom too, _____ Fond - est prais - es sing for aye, _____ To the boys of the U. S. A. _____
