

MAY 21 1919

©DE 440578 ✓

The Brave Hearted Mother

Words by

ELEANOR GORMAN

Music by

LEO FRIEDMAN

NORTH AMERICAN
MUSIC COMPANY
GRAND OPERA HOUSE BLDG.
CHICAGO

H. G. 1646
F

The Brave Hearted Mother

Words by ELEANOR GORMAN

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

Piano introduction in 2/4 time, featuring a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.

A brave, lov-ing moth-er A fam-ly had raised AH true to their
The hard-ships of bat-tle We brave-ly will face, With guns to our

Piano accompaniment for the first line of lyrics, showing the right and left hand parts.

coun-try she de-served great praise; With-out an-y weep-ing or shoul-ders, we'll go to our place; With vic-tries or loss-es, with

Piano accompaniment for the second line of lyrics, showing the right and left hand parts.

e-ven a sigh She gave up her last one And bade him good-bye.
hard-ships or fear We'll know of no dan-ger That ev-er is near.

Piano accompaniment for the third line of lyrics, showing the right and left hand parts.

CHORUS

With the help of our brave heart-ed moth-ers — The boys are now cross-ing the sea — To fight for our Free-dom and Glo-ry
 And re - store our Lib - er - ty; God bless our brave heart-ed moth-ers And bring us all saf - ly here — When we won the vic - t'ry for Free-dom — And peace reigns a - gain o - ver there.

