f

I've two mil - lion cou - sins com - ing home, Com - ing

home from o'er the sea; They've been big broth - ers to the Poi - lu, home from o'er the sea; They've brave - ly stood the shock of bat - tle,

And Huns too, I do de - clare! They have fought for Un - daunt - ed by fire and shell; They have done their Lib - er - ty and right, They have crushed the van dals vaunt - ed might, du - ty brave and true, And brought hon - or to the Red, White, Blue;

Com-ing home to the land of Lib - er - ty, Home where they Now they leave man - y friends a - cross the sea, Home where they loved you and me, They are all my Un - cle Sam - my's boys And loved you and me.

CHORUS

so they're cousins to me, The tru - est, brav - est, fight - ing boys, that ev - er you did see, And

I am just as proud of them, As ev - er I can be; They all be - long to

Un - cle Sam, So of course they are cou - sins to me,
