CHORUS

When the Hun is van-ished and the war is o'er, Our Yan-kee boys will sail a gain for

p-f our be-lov-ed shore, Then, the na-tions will be free And we shall see our boys a gain While the hills and dales are ring-ing As our sol-diers come home sing-ing Neath the Red, the White and blue They'll be marching to their loved ones true

SPOKEN

When the smoke of battle has cleared away, our flag will still be there, every star shining with glory. Liberty loving men of every clime, will rally around and lift it up, and it shall never fall, as long as brave men inhabit the earth.
