

JUL -5 1919
© CLE453099

FROM BLUE TO GOLD

Words by
W. H. WORTS, Jr.

Music by
LEO FRIEDMAN

NORTH AMERICAN
MUSIC PUBLISHING Co.
119 No. Clark St., Chicago, Ill.

111646
JF

From Blue to Gold

Words by W.H. WORTS, Jr.

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

Introduction for piano, featuring a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The music is in 2/4 time and begins with a forte dynamic.

With all good cheers we saw them off, And wish'd them all a safe re-turn, We knew they were a
And in the flags a star of blue, For their own war-rior brave and bold, And when that war-rior
Some died up - on the bat-tle-field, As our brave fa-thers did of old, Right there is where their Piano accompaniment for the first vocal line, continuing the melody and bass line from the introduction.

hap - py lot, But oh, how our brave hearts did yearn; Now off they went to train - ing camp, For gives his life, his star will turn to one of gold; They left their home and loved ones dear, Then ser - vice stars, turned from the blue in - to the gold; Some hearts are gay, they've won the day, Won all at sol-dier-ing were green, And from each home that a loved one left, - A ser - vice flag was to be seen.

Piano accompaniment for the second vocal line, continuing the melody and bass line.

went a - cross the deep blue sea, And made a stand in a for - eign land, And fought for you and fought for me.
freedom for both young and old, When they re - turn, then some hearts will burn, For stars that now have turned to gold.

Piano accompaniment for the third vocal line, continuing the melody and bass line.

CHORUS

When the stars in our ser-vice flag turn from blue to gold, And the loved ones that are mis-sing don't re-tur, They fought with all their might, for the cause they knew was right, And what they had to tell we'll nev-er learn; So, as we all grow old there will be lots of sto-ries told, But sil-ent will be the stars that turned from blue to gold.

