The first system of the score shows the piano introduction. It consists of a treble and bass staff with a 2/4 time signature. The music is in G major and begins with a piano (p) dynamic marking. The right hand plays a series of chords and eighth notes, while the left hand provides a steady bass line.

The second system contains the first line of lyrics. The vocal line is written in a single treble staff, and the piano accompaniment is in two staves. The lyrics are: "The bells have rung out their tid-ings of peace, The war-drum is You mur-dered, pil-laged, de-stroyed as you went; None e-qualified you". The music continues with the same piano accompaniment as the introduction.

The third system contains the second line of lyrics. The vocal line continues from the previous system. The lyrics are: "no lon-ger heard, And the air is a-stir with the in aw-ful things, But your pow'r to de-stroy and to". The piano accompaniment continues to support the vocal line.

The fourth system contains the third line of lyrics. The vocal line continues. The lyrics are: "joy and de-light, That springs from the Mag-i-cal word; mas-ter our joy, Thank God, has at last tak-en wings;". The piano accompaniment continues.

The fifth system contains the fourth line of lyrics. The vocal line concludes the phrase. The lyrics are: "Yes, Free-dom and Peace how the ec-ho, re-sounds Through You're gone and with you went our gloom and de-spair, We". The piano accompaniment continues.

furled here. Good-bye, Kai-ser Bill, You'd be kil-ling still, If you on-ly had your own way; But you're Mis-ter Wil-liam,

Just plain Mis-ter Bill, And you have to do what we say.
