Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

A musical score for the song "Hello Broadway Goodbye France". The score is written in 2/4 time and consists of four systems. Each system includes a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note bass line and chords in the right hand. The vocal line is a simple melody with lyrics. The lyrics are: "A thousand Yanks were march-ing a - long a road in France, A So here we stand u - ni - ted, the con-quer's of the foe, Old thou-sand French were cheer-ing, for they were leav-ing France; With Eng - land, France and Bel - gium and Ital - y you know; With hats in air - hearts beat-ing — and feet all in a dance, They Un - cle Sam as lead-er to cheer them on their way Well".

A thousand Yanks were march-ing a - long a road in France, A
So here we stand u - ni - ted, the con-quer's of the foe, Old thou-sand French were cheer-ing, for they were leav-ing France; With Eng - land, France and Bel - gium and Ital - y you know; With hats in air - hearts beat-ing — and feet all in a dance, They Un - cle Sam as lead-er to cheer them on their way Well marched, with steps so firm and true, down to the coast of France.

soon have pluck-y Bel-gi-um 'right back in her old sway.

CHORUS

Hel-lo Broad-way, good-bye France, We're some-thus-and less, Hel-lo sweet-hearts, wives and moth-ers, We have don our best; For the vic-try was well worth

All our strife and loss, For we've shone old Kai-ser

Pill That he now has a boss.
