

OUR FIGHTING YANKEE BOY

Words and Music

by

John L. Galloway

PUB. by GALLOWAY PUB. CO
DETROIT, MICH. U.S.A.

H1626
.6

OUR FIGHTING YANKEE BOY

Words & Music by JOHN L. GALLOWAY

Marcia

Pre - par - ing war for for - ty years to crush de - mo - cra - cy; Was the
The bat - tles of the Marne will al - ways live in his - to - ry: As the plan of Ger - ma - ny, — To rule the Land and sea. — But Bri - tain, France and It - a - ly just blood bought lib - er - ty, — Of na - tions of the Free. — So since the work of our de - fend - ers held the foe in check; 'Till our Un - cle Sam - my joined his "Pals" and fin - ished up the wreck.

VAMP

"O - ver There" is thru; Let us hope for peace for - ev - er with our old "Red, White and Blue."

CHORUS

When Sam-my's work was finish'd "O-ver There" in sun-ny France, He turned his face toward his dear old U. — S.

p.f.

A. — The fight-er with a will, who has caus'd the world to thrill; For we are all well a-ware of the things he did to "Bill". He promised Un-cle Sammy when he sail'd a-way to fight; To make the ty-rants pay the costs, he did it too, all right A hundred mil-lion hearts are fill'd with lov-ing pride and joy: All be-cause of our own he-ro lad, our fight-ing Yan-kee Boy. — When Boy. —

D.S.

456938