CHORUS.

1. Crowns of des - pots, lords and chief - tans, Weak the cause but strong in - stead,
 2. Na - tions of the world's do - min - ion find in us a ha - ven true,
 3. Stars and stripes, thy sons the brav - est, Beats one heart in all the breasts,

Lib - er - ty, the crown of free - dom, Rests up - on the hum - blest head;
 Lord of lords and king of kings in the tasks we dai - ly do;
 Heart of free - dom, noth - ing daunt - ed in the strife that we must wrest

Ma - jes - ty in low - ly cot - tage, Eve - ry man is born a peer,
 Ter - rors pale no sons of free - dom, In the con - flict o'er the sea, Tyr - an - ny from all do - min - ions That all na - tions true may be f

One and all, now and for - ev - er, Long live the cause we cher - ish dear, Grave the task, more brave the he - ro in the cause of lib - er - ty.
 Safe from strife, from wars and con - flict in a land of lib - er - ty.
