

SEP 10 1917

©CLE407801

WHEN MY RED CROSS GIRL COMES HOME

By J. P. GILROY

H1646

G

46

When My Red Cross Girl Comes Home

Moderato Gilroy

Vamp Voice p

1. This world is in a tur - moil state. "War" is the bat - tle
2. The Al - lies brave their lives they gave, and those Ca - na - dian
3. The time has come, our pa - tience gone, we tried to do what's

- cry,..... Our Red Cross girls are all in line, to do their bit they'll try..... They're boys,..... They marched a - way for the bat - tle fray, midst din and deafning noise..... I right,..... We've stood in - sults of ev' - ry kind; we did not want to fight..... You've

- leav - ing home and friends that dear and o - ther earth - ly joys,..... There to go up - on the o - ver - heard a sold - ier say: "My - self I have no fear,..... But I leave be - hind a sunk our ves - sels, one by one, and took our dear ones too,..... That is go - ing far e - bat - tle - field, and to help our sold - ier boys: Both rich and poor are all a - like, they moth - er kind, and a sweet - heart to me dear; He's talk - ing to his loved one now, a nough we think, so we'll have to tend to you. We're going to give you what you need and all work hand in hand..... The world has got to hon - or them, they are the "Nob - le mo - ment by his side..... She told him not to wor - ry, as some day she'd be his make you show your hand..... That's or - ders from a man who knows, and by him we will Grand,"..... And when they come back home a - gain, then our mem - 'ry will not fade..... We'll bride..... And I'll be with you in this fight, said this no - ble Red Cross Maid..... She stand..... His name is Mis - ter Wil - son, he is in the White House chair..... You'll join to geth - er greet - ing them. Our Red Cross Nurse Bri - gade.

 then dis - played the col - ors of and the Red Cross Nurse Bri - gade.
 find him in the lob - by and you'll find him on the square.

Chorus

So, there's go - ing to be a jub - i - lee, when my Red Cross Girl comes home,..... She went a - way at the break of day, on the bat - tle - field to roam,..... Her heart went with our sold - ier boys to cheer and give them aid,..... Now we pray and yearn they'll all re - turn with the Red Cross Nurse Bri - gade. So there's gade,.....

44401