What's the Use Of Living When You Have No One To Love

Words by Miss. ANNA HOPKA

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

The piano introduction for the first system consists of two staves. The right hand plays a series of chords in a 2/4 time signature, starting with a G major chord and moving through several other chords. The left hand plays a simple bass line with eighth notes.

It seems that ev - ry oth - er lad thru out this wide, wide world Has
It seems some-times I find a girl who looks so good to me But

The piano accompaniment for the first vocal line continues with the same chordal structure as the introduction, providing harmonic support for the vocal melody.

found a pret - ty lit - tle girl who set his heart a - whirl My she will nev - er love me so what is the use, you see, Oh

The piano accompaniment for the second vocal line continues with the same chordal structure, supporting the vocal melody.

heart is ach - ing for a girl to love, oh, can't you see That gee! it's tough to be so blue and be so all a - lone No

The piano accompaniment for the third vocal line continues with the same chordal structure, supporting the vocal melody.

I am long - ing for some one, as lone some as can be.
 gir - lie that will have you and no girl to call your own.

CHORUS

Whats the use of liv - ing when there's no one to love you, Whats the use of dream - ing when your , dreams nev - er come true Whats the use of flirt - ing with the girls like tur - tle doves, Oh whats the use of liv - ing when you have no girl to love.
