The musical score is written in 2/4 time and consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part features a steady accompaniment of chords in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand. The vocal line is in a single register and includes lyrics with some words in italics. The score is divided into three systems, with the final system ending with a double bar line and a 2/4 time signature change.

Dear - ie now the time has come, For you and I to part, And when I go sweet - Days have been so lone - ly dear, Since we have had to part, The i - mage that I heart you know, 'Twill al - most break my heart, For I love but you, hold so dear, Has sure - ly broke my heart, For I loved but you, Will you be true. When the leaves be - gin - to fall,
Have you been true.

When the sky is turned to gray, Will you think of one you love, Who is fight - ing far a - way, Will you be good and true, To the one who loves but you, And no mat - ter where you'll be, Will you al - ways think of me, When the leavés of gold - en brown be - gin to fall.
