March Time

O'er sea to a place called We'll put in the "Yan-kee

France, — Once the home of gay ro-mance, — Ere man-y a day, We'll Punch, — Which will give Wil-helm a hunch, — It's bus'-ness we mean, Not be on our way, To en-ter war's game of chance, — We will play for the screen, We're go-ing to whip his bunch, — "Bill" had go with our hearts care-free, — To fight for De-moc-ra-cy, In staked his all to win, — And he did not want us in, — No lands o - ver run by can - non and gun, Of cru - el Au - toe - ra - cy. — mon - ey we spared got bu - sy, pre - pared, We're on our way to Ber - lin. —

CHORUS

When we get there, When we get there, We will call the Kai - sers bluff, ————— For we Sam - mies have the stuff, That will make him cry "e - nough," When we get there. ————— there. —————
