This song, composed September 14, 1919, was inspired by the great demonstration at Convention Hall, Kansas City, Mo., Saturday night, September 13, 1919, when Hiram W. Johnson, United States Senator from California, spoke against the League of Nations pact and its peril to our country, and the iniquities of the Peace Treaty of the World War, as formulated at Versailles, France, and signed by Germany June 28, 1919.
