Moderato.

Piano introduction in G major, 2/4 time. The piece begins with a moderate tempo. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady bass accompaniment. A 'Vamp' section is indicated at the end of the first system.

1. There's a man this ver-y min-ute wants the world and all that's in it, Says his "kul-tur" got-ta rule both land and sea — And I luck in man-y bat-tles, got his goat and gave him rat-tles, Then old Hin-den-burg said Chief the cake's all dough — And the
 2. Oh he goes to bed a-schemin' falls a - sleep and starts to dream' He's the on-ly oil can ly- in' on the dump — Then he brains they go a-whirl-in' and his whis-kers start a twirlin' And he calls his gang a-round him once a - gain — Tell my Piano accompaniment for the first verse, marked 'p' (piano). The melody continues with a similar rhythmic pattern to the introduction, supporting the vocal lines.

know it was heart rending with our Un- cle Sam a send- ing All our sol- dier boys, to tell him what we'd choose When we re- fused, Kai- ser sad but wis- er split a bot- tle of Bud- weis- er And he said, Ach Gott what can my U boats do, Such aw- ful news, jumps and starts a screamin' prespi- ration just a streamin' When old Tir- pitz tries to wake him with a bump, To tell the news, peo- ple we are win- nin', then the gang looks up a- grin- nin' Says we've bulled 'em of- ten with that same old news Which they re- fuse, — the Kai- ser got the blues (He got the weary blues) He tried his blues gives me the weary blues (I mean the weary blues) blues that gives 'em all the blues (It gives 'em all the blues) And then his blues and then he feels those blues (I mean he feels those blues) blues all re-fused, He's tried all the ner-vous ton-ics, just to ease his troub-led mind, Sent his gangs all hunt-in' med-i-cat-ed roots and vines, He's used pills and dope, the Huns have lost all hope, Because they know his on-ly cure is a bul-let or a rope, Say what you choose the Kai-ser's got the blues (He's got the weary blues) Oh the blues) D.S.
