©CIE515115 e
JUL 21 1921 / R

OUR UNFORGOTTEN HEROES

SONG

by

JAMES J. HANLON

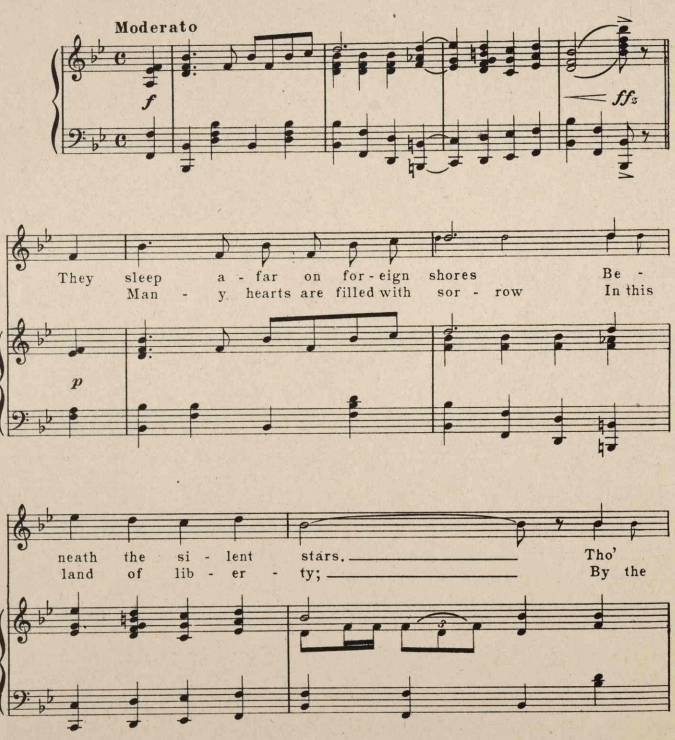
Price 60 cents

Published by
JAMES J. HANLON,
KULPMONT, PA.

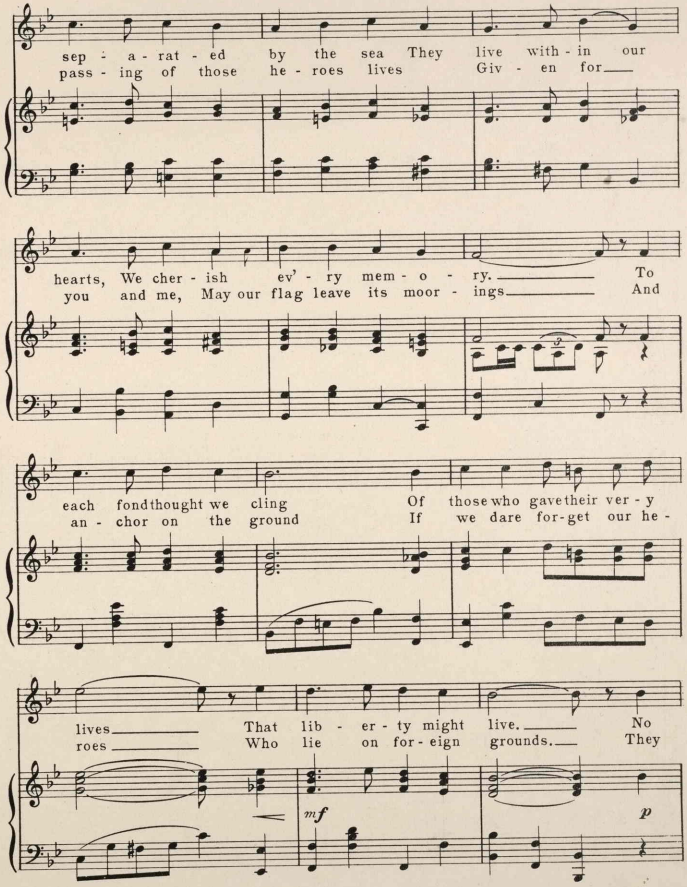
M1L46
H

Our Unforgotten Heroes

JAMES J. HANLON



Copyright MCMXXI by James J. Hanlon.



sep - a - rat - ed by the sea They live with - in our pass - ing of those he - roes lives Giv - en for hearts, We cher - ish ev' - ry mem - o - ry. To you and me, May our flag leave its moor - ings And each fond thought we cling Of those who gave their ver - y an - chor on the ground If we dare for-get our he - lives That lib - er - ty might live. No roes Who lie on for - eign grounds. They mf
p

free - men will for - get you, In our died for truth and jus - tice For hearts you will live on. He - roes, brave right and lib - er - ty. We won't for - get our he - roes, True he - roes ev' - ry one.
he - roes Who lie a - cross the sea.
ffz
CHORUS
O'er the land of the free, o'er the land of the brave; O p - f

Star Span-gled ban-ner would you still dare to wave If we ev - er for-get them or the lives that they gave? We must ev - er re-mem-ber they al-ways will live on. Our he-roes, so 1
2
no-ble, Cour-a-geous and brave! O'er the brave!
f ffz

528871