Victory Echoes

Words by ALBERT D. BUSH

Music by EDOUARD HESSELBERG

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand plays a series of chords in the treble clef, while the left hand plays a rhythmic accompaniment in the bass clef. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 4/4.

A mes - sage from a far off land, Where brave hearts took their stand To fight for all hu -
But now a - gain the day seems bright, Our hearts a - gain feel gay, The bur - den now feels

The first system of the song features a vocal line on a single staff and piano accompaniment on two staves. The vocal line begins with the lyrics 'A mes - sage from a far off land, Where brave hearts took their stand To fight for all hu - But now a - gain the day seems bright, Our hearts a - gain feel gay, The bur - den now feels'. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and a rhythmic pattern.

CHORUS

Aye, it in - deed makes our hearts re - joice, To know they've reached their goal, A - gain to hear his man - ly voice, ah, 'tis sooth - ing to the soul! For the hour seemed dark and drear - y, As our souls grew weak and wear - y And our hearts were filled with fear, As we yearned for loved ones dear.
