©CLE407950

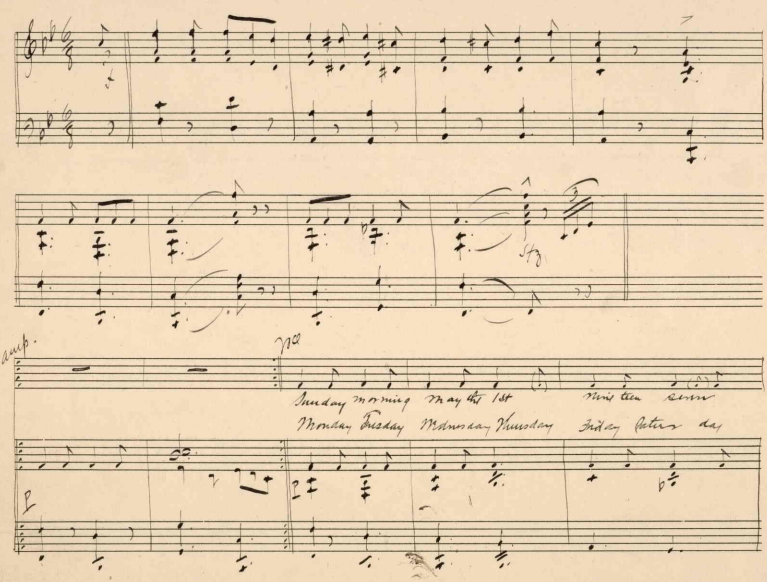
SEP 17 1917

Words by
Lew Brown

Music by
A. Harriman

I'm Writing to You Sammy

Tempo Moderato



M1646
.H

then and what and who are which and how postal cards from boys I never knew and that's the reason why I'm in an But it seems mighty strange I never awful puzzle now I'm very sorry that you name is Sara heard a word from you Per haps you did'nt answer cause you 'spose Cause
the CHORUS
what's what puts me in the fix I am Writing to you Sammy and other boys are writing to me too mp-f
'spose how when in France I'm writing to you Sammy I know I'm taking a chance fore you start a way. I know I can you don't forget to write you Sammy Care of the U. S. A. But I'm beginning to wonder if you really know where Darling ever you are in the Army Sammy to — So where you're going to is your company number send my letter through But I can tell by the answer whether it got to you that's what makes me sore I'm — a give this thing a round up Horace when you get back from

ART BRAND No. 10.