When Uncle Sam's Brave Boys Arrive In Germany

Words & Music by BERYL H. GUNDY

With spirit. Strict march time

Hark to the rum-ble o'er all the world, Where the Oh see that ea-ger and anx-ious throng, 'Tis the man-y na-tions strug-gle now for lib-er-ty. Oh Lib-er-ty, yes sweet Lib-er-ty, Which the par-ents, sis-ters, sweet-hearts, wives of our dear boys, Just to see them and to kiss them, Once a - Ger-man Kai-ser wants to wrench from land and sea. The gal-lant French-men, the bou-ny Eng-lish, Have tried to gain be-fore they leave their home and friends. O, hear the band play, the sound of march-ing, They are show him a thing or two, But now they've called on your Un-cle Sam-my, To come and com-ing! O good-bye boys! Be brave and loy-al to God and coun-try, And may the help them fight the com-mon foe, O-ver all this land of ours, Fields of grain are bless-ing of the world be yours. Those you leave will love you true, Pray that God shall way-ing fair, To help to feed our Al - ly friends, And de - fend our own Red, White and Blue.

strengthen you Till o - ver all this trou-bled world, Peace a - gain, shall rule!

CHORUS

Lively and with expression

But when Un - cle Sam's brave boys arrive in Ger - man - y, They will spank that Kai-ser good be - fore they let him be. They will turn our guns up-on him with a big Boom! Boom! And they'll make a noise to him just like his Doom! Doom! Doom! Nev - er more will an - y na - tion drag Old Glo - ry in the dust, For our

Kah - ki Boys can fight you know, When hon - or says they must, E - ven now a - round the camp - fire sounds that old fa - mil - iar lay, of Tramp, tramp, tramp, the boys are marching, The dear brave boys of our old U. S. A.
