

MAY 14 1917

©E403345

*Dedicated by the composer to
Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States*

HYMN OF PATRIOTISM

(An answer to the Hymn of Hate)

Composed by

C. LILLIAN GRIFFIN

Poem by

EMILE VOÛTE

50c

NEW YORK ❖ P. VERBURG

M1646

.G

50

HYMN OF PATRIOTISM

1

Dear Lord, guard our beloved land,
Let Truth and Right prevail;
Grant strength to him whose guiding hand
Leads us along the trail.
Though first we are a peaceful race,
No cravens we shall be
When we are called upon to face
A foe on land or sea.

2

Let Justice ever temper Might
With us, and with our foes;
Give gracious proof that only Right
The seed of Vict'ry sows.
We pray Thee silence all whose word
Would drive our peace away;
But if we must take up the sword,
Watch o'er us, Lord, we pray.

3

Dear Lord, long let our standard wave
For Freedom's glorious sake;
Let us be just as well as brave
In all we undertake.
Let us not fail to understand
Our efforts must not lag,
To make us worthy of our land
And worthy of our flag.

Poem by
EMILE VOÛTE

Dedicated by the composer to
Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States

Hymn of Patriotism

Composed by
C. LILLIAN GRIFFIN

Andante maestoso

ff

Dear Lord guard our be - lov - ed land, Let truth and right pre - vail — Grant strength to him whose guid - ing hand leads us a - long the trail — Tho'

first we are a peace - ful race, No cra - vens we shall be — When we are called up - on to face a foe on land or sea. —