A

Our lads have answer'd duty's call, — To fight a foreign foe; — For love of coun-try home and Our lads have answer'd duty's call, — Their lives they'll freely give, — That last-ing peace may have its flag, — O'er sea and land they go, — Their cause is not for greed or gold, — But birth, — And then for- ev- er live, — The cause is not for greed or gold, — But jus-tice and the right, — And for that cause they'll dangers brave To win, to win the fight! — jus-tice and the right, — And free the land for - ev- er more From war-tim-es cru-el blight! —

CHORUS

Then here's to the boy in the arm - y, — And the lads in the na - vy too. — The men who'll up-hold the hon - or and glo - ry of the Red, White and Blue! — Then here's to the mothers and sweet-hearts And the Red Cross Nurs - es true. — They're do - ing their bit for their coun - try In their love for the Red, White and Blue! — Then Blue!
