JUN -5 1917 ©UE405767

OUT THERE

WORDS AND MUSIC BY

HERMAN HUPFELD

PUBLISHED BY
WM. A POND & CO.
18 WEST 37TH ST. NEW YORK

COPYRIGHT 1917 BY WM. A. POND & CO.

60¢

"Out There"

Picture a strong young yankee lad,
With all the comforts of home
As he dozes off in a big arm-chair
And his thoughts begin to roam
He dreams of the boys who have sacrificed all
To stand by their country and fight
He counts them one by one as they fall in line,
For a cause they know is right.
Then suddenly the ghost of his conscience appears,
And he hears it clearly say
"Come on young fellow, don't tell me you're yellow,
They need you out there to-day."

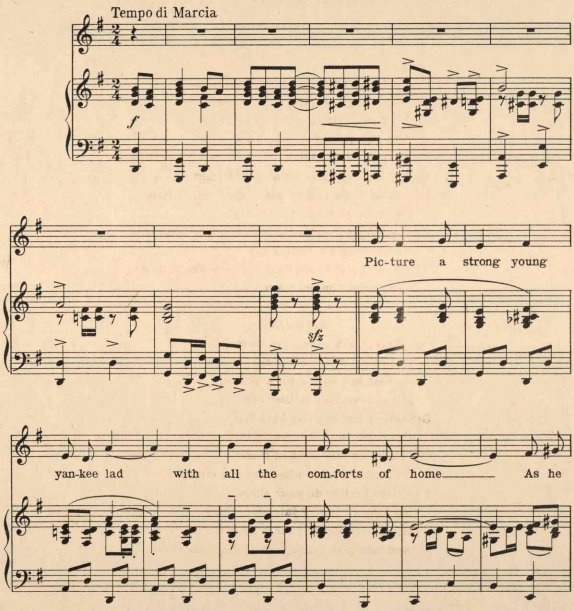
REFRAIN

Out there, that's where you belong
Out there, if you're big and strong
Uncle Sam has no use for a slacker,
If you love your mother country,
Get behind her boy and back her;
Out there, with the rest of them,
Out there, with the best of them,
On land or sea, or wherever you may be,
Now's the time to do your share,
Meet your country fair and square,
Take a brace, throw your head in the air
And take your place with the boys out there.

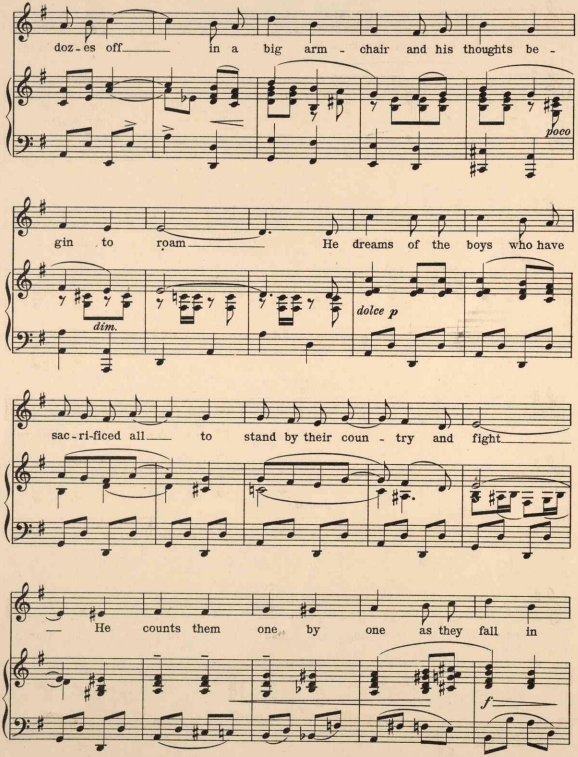
Herman Hupfeld

"Out There"

Words and Music by
HERMAN HUPFELD



Copyright MCMXVII by Wm. A. Pond & Co.
International Copyright Secured



doz - es off in a big arm - chair and his thoughts be - poco gin to roam He dreams of the boys who have dim.
dolce p
sac - ri-ficed all to stand by their coun - try and fight
— He counts them one by one as they fall in line, for a cause they know is right. Then sud-den-ly the dim.
f

p mf mysterioso
ghost of his con-science ap-pears, and he hears it clear-ly
pesante
say "Come on young fel-low, don't tell me you're f pesante
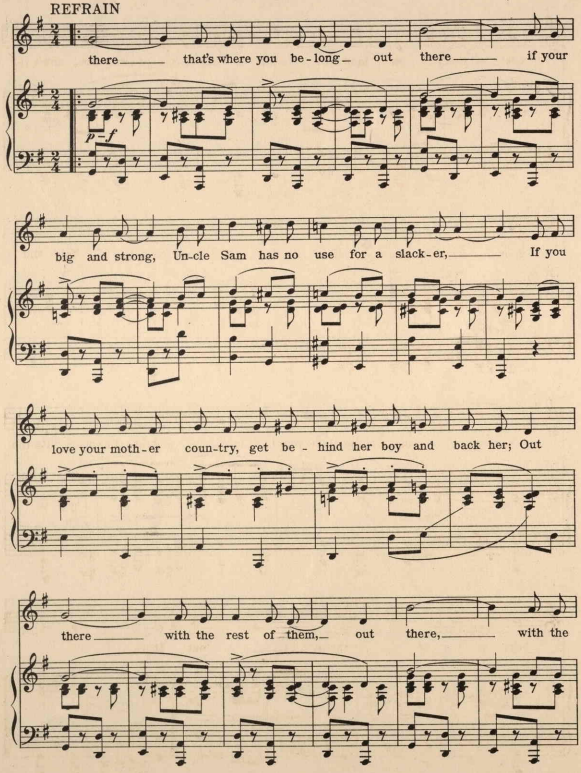
yel-low, they need you out there to day Out

REFRAIN



there that's where you be-long out there if your p f
big and strong, Un-cle Sam has no use for a slack-er, If you love your moth-er coun-try, get be-hind her boy and back her; Out there with the rest of them, out there, with the best of them on land or sea, or wher - e-ver you may be, now's the time to do your share, Meet your coun-try fair and tenuto square, Take a brace, throw your head in the air and take your place with the cresc.

1
2
boys out there. out there.

407490