

SEP 20 1918

GLE 431130

Good-Bye
MY SWEETHEART,
I Am Going.
SONG

Words by

JAY TYLER

Music by

E. S. S. HUNTINGTON

Price 50 cents

Published by JAY TYLER
FAIRBURY, ILLS.

41646
.H

Good-Bye, My Sweetheart, I Am Going

Words by JAY TYLER

Music by
E. S. S. HUNTINGTON

Marcia

1. I hear an ech - o sounding — From o - ver the roll - ing sea. — From the
 2. Our coun - try now is call - ing — Is call - ing for you and me. — For men
 3. At my coun - try's call I'm leav - ing — My dear old U. S. A. — My sweet sun my shores of dear old France, The call is com - ing to me. — For whose brave hearts are true and right And will - ing to join the fight. — So heart and loved ones, friends and all And to France soon I'll be on my way. — Once homes once bright are sad - ened to - night, And ruined by the Kai - ser's might. — To -

 I am go - ing to help them now, And do best the best I can. — To on the oth - er side, I will fight, A reg - u - lar Yan - kee way. — Which come and help them in their fight, For home and lib - er - ty. _____

 now love, and for - ev - er - more, Crush down the Kai - ser's plan. _____
 means to stay till we win the day, Be - fore turn - ing home - ward way. _____

CHORUS

So good-bye, my sweetheart, I am go - ing And soon I'll be on the way, — While I'm sail - ing I know you'll be pray - ing, — That I may re - turn to you some day. — Do not wor - ry for I will hur - ry To hoist the stars and stripes at Berlin, — And when that's done I will come back to you my Yan-kee girl — a - gain. So good gain. —

3

440200