

JUL 10 1918

IF I FALL

Sentimental Ballad

Words by

G. C. BROWN

Music by

JOHN HEISER

50c

Published by JOHN HEISER
31 Morrison Avenue
WEST SOMERVILLE, MASS

DATE OF PUBLICATION

JUL 3 1918

M1646

.H

46

IF I FALL

G. C. BROWN

JOHN HEISER

Slowly

PIANO mf Bass very softly

Rea * Rea Sea * Sea

With feeling

Yes I am go - ing straight o - ver there,
 Now is the mo - ment for you to say,

Sea Sea

Now I am leav - ing say, do you care?
 Will you re - mem - ber while I'm a - way?

*Use Pedal changing it every measure, but play hand very quietly.

Copyright, 1918, by John Heiser

Say do you give me one thought at all?
 Say if I die dear would you be sad?

Spia Sua

Will you re-gret me, If I fall?
 If I come back dear, Will you be glad?

Sua

p CHORUS Softly

Sweet as the ro-ses, Pure as the snow;

p

My love is for you dear, God made it so.

I will be true dear, You are my all, —

Re - mem - ber I loved you if I fall. —

Quartette or Quintette

p Sweet as the ro - ses, Pure as the snow, — My love is for you dear, God made it so. — I will be true dear,

You are my all, — Re - mem - ber I loved you if I fall. —

* Use small notes for extra Soprano, making a Quintette
Obligato must be sung softly not to cover the melody.

If I Fall 2

