©CLE429227
AUG -5 1918

"WELCOME AMERICA"

Lyrics By

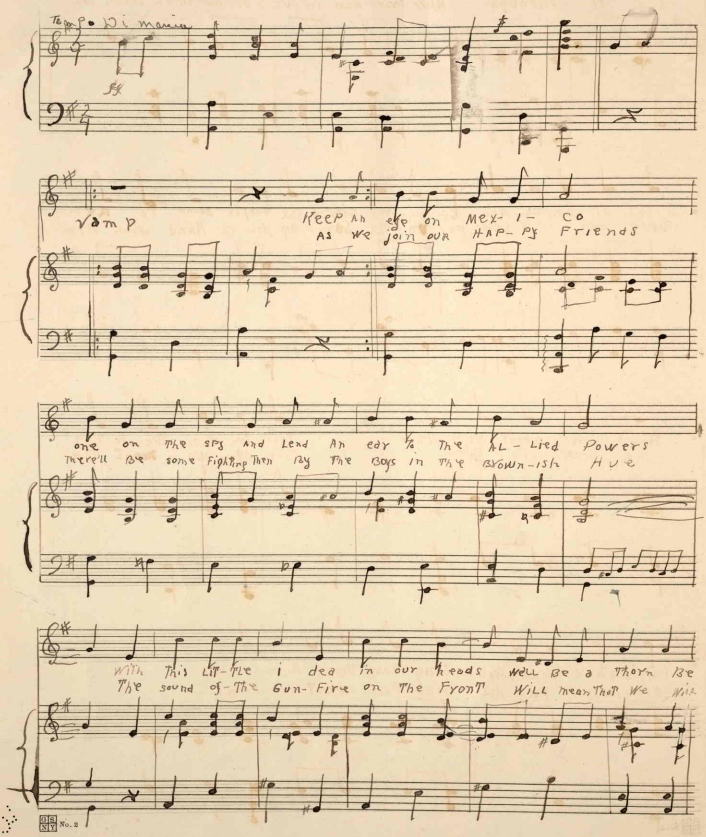
Harrison Jackson

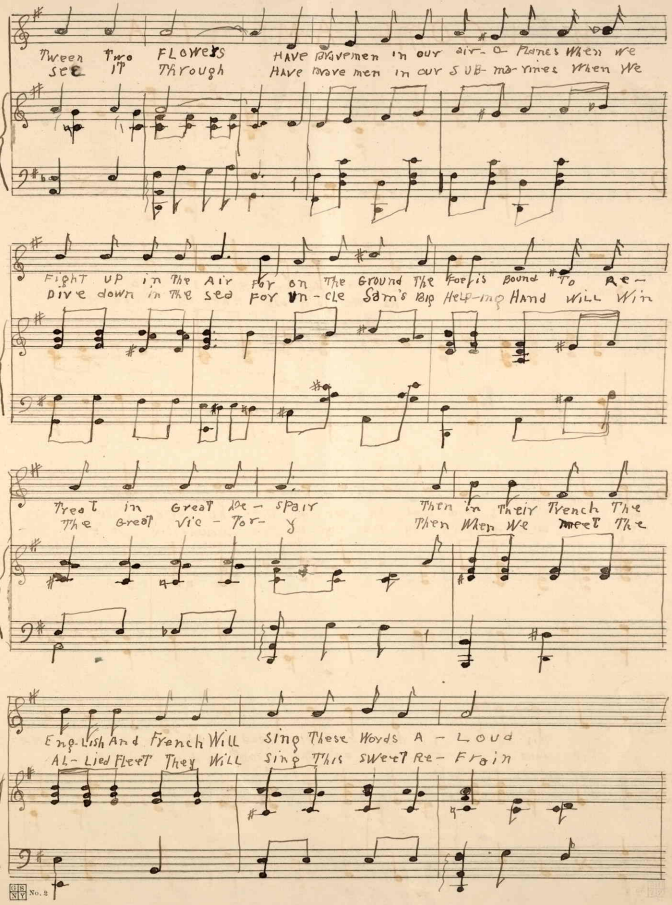
Music By

Martha Hemmingway

No. 2
M1646
.H

WELCOME AMERICA.





'Tween Two FLOWERS HAVE braveMen in our air- O- Planes When We See IT Through HAVE brave men in our SUB- ma-rines When We FIGHT UP in the AIr For on The Ground The Foe is bound To Re-
DIVE down in the sea For Un-cle Sam's Big Help-ing Hand WILL Win
Treat in Great De- SPAIR Then in their Trench The
The Great Vic- Tor- y Then When We meet The Eng-lish And French Will SING These Words A - LOUD
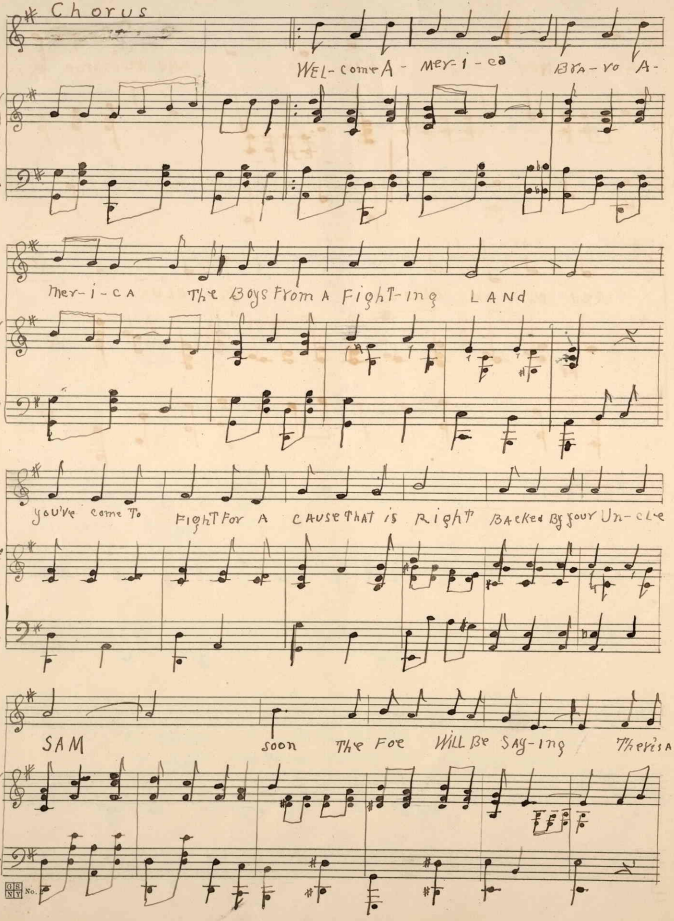
AL- LIED Fleet They Will SING This SWEET Re- Frain



Chorus
WEL-come A-mer-i-ca Bra-vo Amer-i-ca The Boys From A Fight-ing LAND
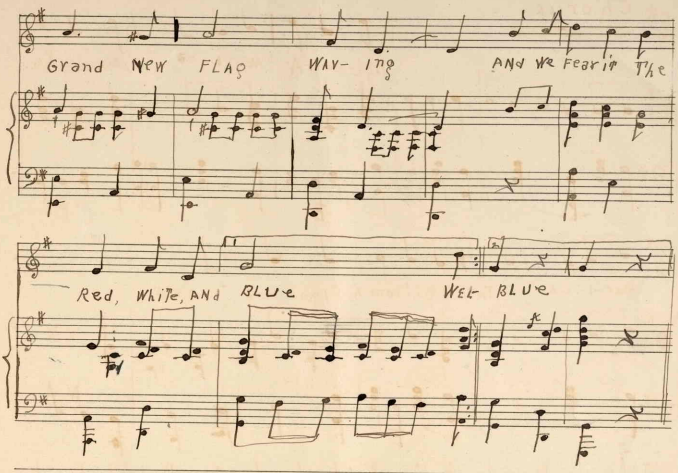
You've come To FightFor A CAUSE That is Right Backed By your Un-cle
SAM soon The Foe Will Be Say-ing There's A



Grand New FLAG WAV- ING AND We Fear in The Red, White, AND BLUE WEL- BLUE

450443