Our Un - cle Sam is on his way, this day, We We have the men, we have the ships, we go, To have Von Hin-den-burg at bay, and say, We'll back the ty-rants 'cross the Rhine, in join our Al-lies, we will whip, the foe, Some ca-mou-flage is ver-y well, and line, They'll sing our Dixie, I will bet, a dime. Their au-to-cra-tic yoke must break, For yet, Not from those roosters hatched in hell, you bet. Bill Ho-hen-zo-lern and his son, Will freedom and for mankind sake, We'll climb up o'er the top and score, A vict'ry for our flag once more, loose their jobs that's go-ing some; Old Glo-ry looks real good to me, Our em-blem of the Brave and Free.

CHORUS Con Spirito

We'll get the Kai - ser, can his sub - ma - rines, Break Hin - den's pipe, boys, Oh Mis - ter Kai - ser, we will get you yet, We have your num - bur,
