WASHINGTON'S CALL FOR A FLAG GAVE US THE RED, WHITE AND BLUE

WORDS BY
GEORGE TOTHAKER

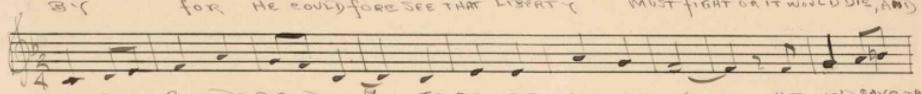

MUSIC BY MAY HILL

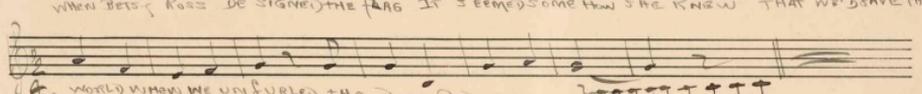

We all cheer the name of Wash-ington who lives in our hearts for he could fore see that liberty must fight or it would die, and when Betsy Ross de signed the flag it seemed some how she knew that we'd save the world when we unfurled the dear, red, white and blue

Chorus

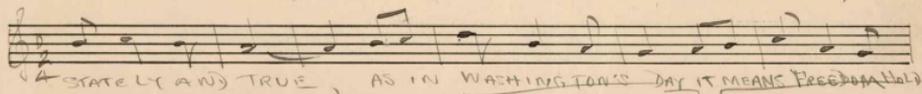

Washington's call for a flag gave us the red, white and blue thoughts sto-ry was told in the fabled days of old it's a tale that will never be new though it floats over there on the shore, or at home, so stately and true, as in Washington's day it means freedom holds sway that's the pledge of the red white and blue

(1)

We all cheer the name of Washington
Who lived in days gone by,
For he could foreses that liberty
Must fight, or it would die,
And when Betsy Ross designed the flad
It seemed, somehow, she knew,
That we'd save the world, when we unfurled
The dear Red, White and Blue:

CHORUS.

Washington's call for a flag
Gave us the Red, White and Blue,
Though its story was told in the famed days of old
Its a tale that will ever be new,
Though it floats "Over There" on the shore
Or at home, so stately and true;
As in Washington's day, it means "Freedom holds sway"
That's the pledge of the Red, White and Blue.

Wilson, just like George Washington
Fought tyrants o'er the sea,
For he, too, foresaw that Freedom's law
Must doom Autocracy;
Belgium's call for help was not in vain
Our duty has been done;
The United States has shown the world
We're sons of Washington.

Chorus (same)

EXTRA PUNCH LINES.

- § In the future, we'll see it protect liberty, etc.
- ♪ When it floats in the air, let all tyrants beware, etc.
