

"Wilson, Democracy, and the Red, White and Blue."

~~161~~
PROFESSIONAL COPY

Words and Music by
PVT. WM. H. HOLLINGSWORTH
Med. Corps, U. S. A.

Vamp

The war in France now is ov - er The
The boys on their way to Ber - lin Were boys soon will come sail - ing home To live in A - me - ri - ca's clov - er rea - dy to do or to die O And de - moc - ra - cy they did win

For peace lies ov - er the foam. Cause vic - to - ry rests on their Shout - ing the old bat - tle cry. Pre - si - dent Wil - sen be - shoul - ders A - long with the red, white and blue A - me - ri - ca's hind them Fight - ing with All - ied King and Lord For Wil - son's the proud of her sol-diers And, Wil-son we're proud of you.

 man who can show them The pen's might-ier than the sword.

Chorus

Wil-son, de-moc-ra-cy, the red, white and blue We owe our vic-to-ry all to you

Kul-tur is done, de-moc-ra-cy won Hip, hip, hur-rah for the U. S. A. So lets give three cheers for "old glo-ry" For she's been tried and true And the Ar-my and Na-vy for-ev-er With Wil-son, de-moc-ra-cy, the red, White and blue.