My Fleur-De-Lis in France

Words by
JEAN MILLETT

Music by
DOUGLAS HOLMES

Moderato allegro

The piano introduction is in 2/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It begins with a series of whole rests on the treble clef staff. The right hand then plays a melodic line starting on D4, moving to E4, F#4, G4, and A4, with some grace notes and slurs. The left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes, including a prominent bass line of D3, E3, F#3, G3, and A3. Dynamics include f and fs.

The first line of the song features a vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The vocal line starts with a quarter rest, followed by the lyrics: "I met her first at Chateau Thierry, Though sad was she her heart was / I al-ways call her 'ma belle chérie,' Al-though her name is Fan - ie". The piano accompaniment is in 2/4 time, with a melody in the right hand and chords in the left hand. Dynamics include mp.

The second line of the song continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The vocal line includes the lyrics: "mer-ry. Oh, it was there she won my heart, And we have promised nêer to part. / Mag-rec. Her's are wondrous eyes of deep-est blue, And her heart is ev-er pure and true." The piano accompaniment continues with a steady harmonic support. Dynamics include rit.

I shall wed her, my Fleur-De-Lis in France.

THE GREAT VICTORY SONG
 As we go marching through
 Germany. BY EDITH DE LORNE

Refrain

As we go march-ing through Ger-ma-ny Through Ger-ma-ny, through Ger-ma-ny, We'll cry to all, Make way to-day
 (We cried) for vic-tor-y, for vic-tor-y!" We'll wave our ban-ners in the (We waved)
 air and shout, Be-ware for lib-er-ty! As we go march-ing-(shouting)
