

MAR 13 1919

DO I HAVE TO LOSE YOU, DARLING?

©CLE443267

By 1916

OTTO E. HORNBERG

PUBLISHED BY Delmar Music Co.
CHICAGO

Do I Have to Lose You, Darling?

OTTO E. HORNBURG

Valse lente

Moderato

Do I have to lose you, dar - ling, Do I have to grieve and mourn o - ver Do I have to leave you, dar - ling, Do I have to give you up to - you? I so long to look in - to your ce - rul - can eyes, For they are as bright as the day? Your lov - ing smiles and your gen - tle voice Are what made me feel so hap - py south - ern sun - ny skies. Do I have to be left all a - lone In this and re - joice. Do I have to make him feel glad For wide world with - out a home? Do I have to leave you now?

while I roam I'll feel so sad Do I have to leave you now?

CHORUS Valse lente

No, you may come back some day, And with me you can mf

al - ways stay You have al - ways been so kind and good,

Ev - er since the days of your child - hood, So come back a - gain to me For I'll be wait - ing for you dear - ie.

dim pp

454539