

©CLE44497

FEB 28 1919

R

HOME

By

J. F. HOUCHINS

MRGWA

PUBLISHED BY Delmar Music Co.
CHICAGO

HOME

J. F. HOUCHINS

Marcia

mf

A - mer - i - ca has won the day, the Kai - ser's pow - er is gone; — And At - lan - tic's wave we crossed to save a world from Kul - tur's ban; — Our We've gone in smiles three thou - sand miles to face a world - wide foe; — We've p

France is free of Ger - man - y, and so is Greece and Rome. — sons we gave to for - eign grave to stay the ty - ran's hand. — beat him down in ev - 'ry town, in moun - tain high and low; —

Vic - to - ry won, suc - cess com - plete; Trans - ports, ar - mies, na - vies, fleets Turn
 To Pres - i - dent our spokes - man rose To dic - tate terms to our coun - try's foes, And for A tri - umph for the hu - man race; We pass it on in cheer - ful grace, That our West-ward now their friends to greet. The boys are com- ing home.

 ev- er end all world- war woes Peace in ev- 'ry land.
 chil- dren may not have to face A world of speech- less woe.

REFRAIN

Cheer boys! Cheer boys! Re- peat the glad re- frain. A-Cheer boys! Cheer boys! We've got them go- ing some; Our Cheer boys! Cheer boys! Swell the glad re- frain; Our

mf

mer- i- ca has won the day the world is free a- gain. Let homes are freed from for- eign greed as sure as king- dom come. The fight- ing dads and sol- dier lads have freed the world a- gain; Your no- bles, princ- es, kings and such See what has hap- pened to the Dutch, And plow- share and the prun- ing hook Can now be made of swords we took, And moth- er, home and na- tive land With lov- ing heart and gal- lant stand Bids

Lib- er- ty's shrine dare nev- er touch, While Free- dom reigns.
 all the world should take a look At Em- pire's doom.
 wel- come all with o- pen hand To her sol- dier sons.

