We are will-ling to stay up all night, and look for a fight, and use our kites in the morn-ing, the Irish-men say "Skee-dad-dle" the French say "Ski-doo" the Ger-mans say "Rouse mit both of you" The Eng-lish-men say, Ger-mans, We are get-ting wise to you" The Frenchmen say, "Wee, Wee," The Irishmen say, Just a lit-tle tea af-ter our grand vic-to-ry" We are wise to your snares and decoys; And we are going to live and see our bounc-ing ba-by boy; Yes our bounc-ing ba - by boys we see. We will en-deav-or to show to you a trick or two that is some what new, We are sometimes called "Yan-kee Boys" that is true, true, true.

We have not been feed on can-dy or glue, and true to our col - ors are we; The Red, White and Blue We have pride and we have the right stride; as you can plain-ly see, and the folks at home will not for-get you.

CHORUS

Rip it in - to them, tear it in-to them: And just smile and make a mile or two. Our Yan - kee Boys and the Red, White and Blue. Smile, Smile, Smile. It's worth your while and just make a mile or two, And we will all smile with you. Af - ter the war is o - ver, Af-ter our grand vic-to - ry, Af - ter our boys land on our fair shores, don't be surprised to learn what we have in store for you, our fine brave boys and still some more; Just use one lit - tle kit - ty cat for our mas-cot; One cat that wants to be a kit - ten; One kit - ten that wants to be a cat; that's all; Just a lit - tle kit - ty cat.
