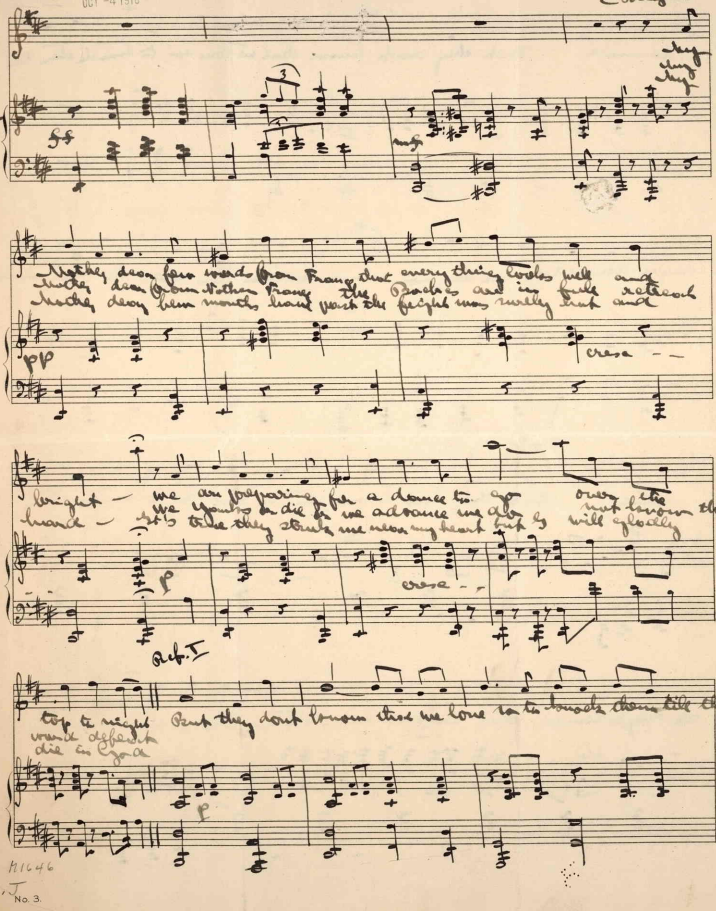
©E E328830

OCT -4 1918

Three Letters

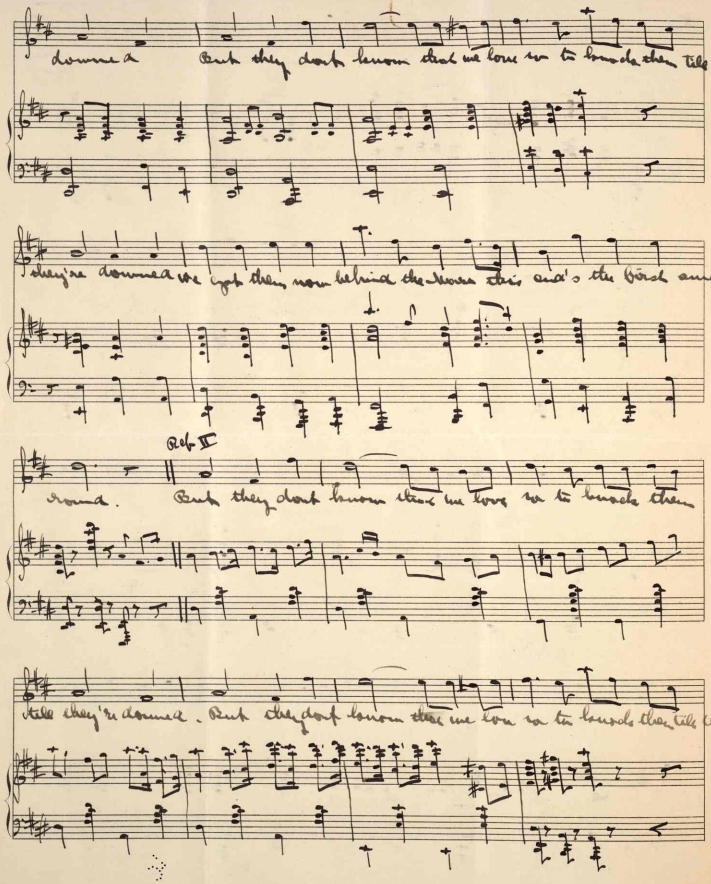
Words and Music by
Daisy Jean (Pseud.)
(Belgian Composer)



"THE SUPERB" A.W. TAMS MUSIC LIBRARY, NEW YORK.

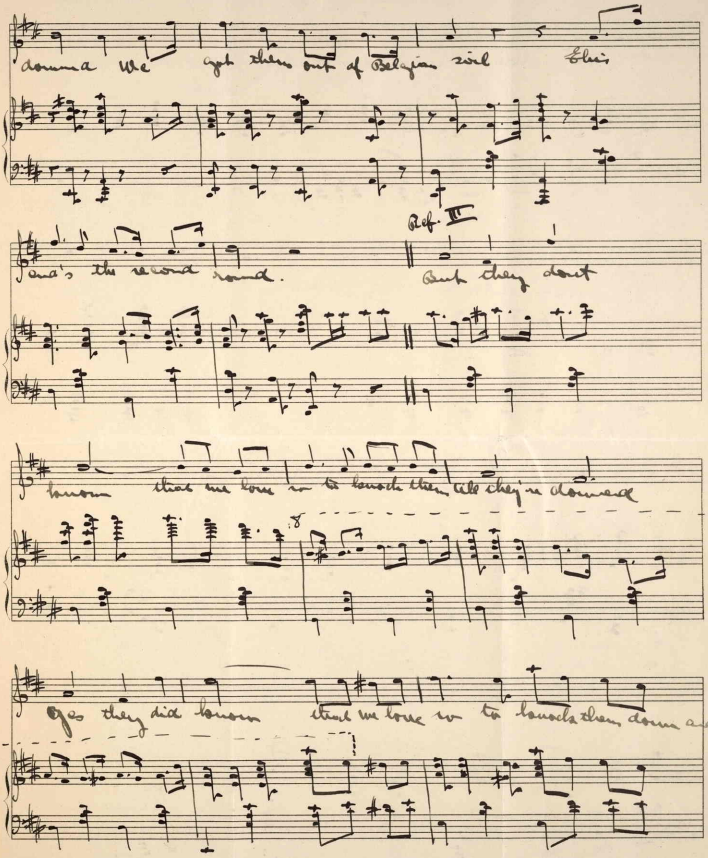
M1646

No. 3.

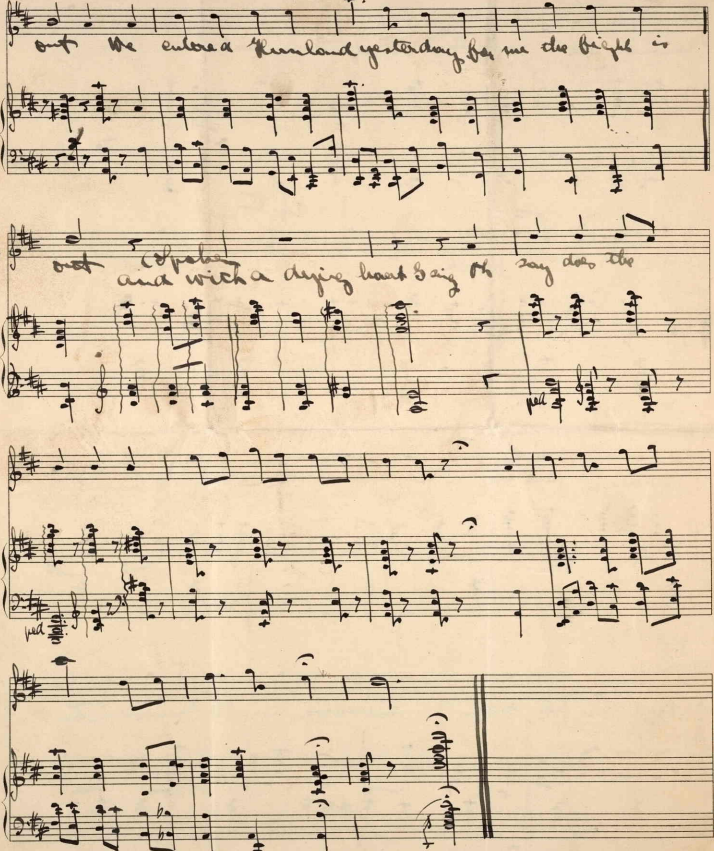


No. 3.

"THE SLIPPER" A.W. TAMS MUSIC LIBRARY, NEW YORK.



"THE SUPERB" A.W. TAMS MUSIC LIBRARY NEW YORK



out the entire promised land yesterday for me the bright is out I spoke and with a dying heart I say to you say does the 3/4
3/4
3/4
pull pull (Organ)

©CLE 32839

GREGG AND COMPANY
ENGINEERS
18 EAST 41ST STREET
NEW YORK

OFFICES
WASHINGTON
NEW YORK
ST LOUIS
KANSAS CITY

OCT -4 1918

Three Letters

Words and Music by Daisy Jean,
(Belgian Composer)

My mother dear few words from France
That everything looks well and bright.
We are preparing for a dance
To go over the top to-night.

Refrain I

But they don't know that we came in to knock them till they're downed.
We got them now behind the Marne. This ends the first small round.

My mother dear from Northern France
The Boches are in full retreat.
We Yanks or die or we advance
We do not know the word defeat.

Refrain II

But they don't know that we came in to knock them till they're downed.
We got them out of Belgian soil. This ends the second round.

My mother dear few months have passed
The fight was surely hot and hard.
It's true they struck me near my heart
But I will gladly die in God.

Refrain III

But they don't know that we came in to knock them till they're downed.
Yes, they did know that we came in to knock them down and out.

. . . . . .

We entered Hunland yesterday. For me the fight is o'er
And with a dying heart, I sing,
"Oh, Say Does that Star Spangled Banner yet wave, O'er the Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave."