

MAY 13 1918

UNDER AND OVER

A N
D

THROUGH AND OFF

MUSIC BY LULU C. JOHNS

2718 West Jefferson Street
LOS ANGELES, CAL.

M1646

.J

50

Under and Over and Through and Off.

Words Anonymous.
Allegretto.

Music by LULU C. JOHNS.

mf Un - der and ov - er and thro'— and off

L. H. L. H.

1. Wound in a knot of
2. Caught in a stitch, just my
3. See how I've tan-gled in
4. Dare I shed tears on the

L. H. L. H. L. H.

mf

soft brown wool— Oh! if you on - ly knew;—
heart, dear boy, Ties that will hold it true;—
all this wool Some - thing I can't un - do, — soft brown wool Were they as bright as dew, —

L. H. L. H. L. H.

Pride— and laugh - ter and joy and tears,
 Hun - dreds of stitch - es, and row on row,
 You who a Na - tion's wrongs re - dress,
 Would they bring peace to my he - ro's soul?

L. H. L. H.

All of my pray'rs thro' the com - ing years, All of my love for Tell - ing a - gain, what you sure - ly know, All of my pride for Sure - ly I owe you hap - pi - ness, Laugh - ter and joy for Nay so I knit— a ti - ny hole, And let all the tears slip

L. H. L. H. L. H.

p you. — All of my love for you! —
 you. — All of my pride for you. —
 you. — Laugh - ter and joy for you. — through. — And let all the tears slip through. —

L. H. L. H. L. H.

p

D. C.

Composer of the following Songs

OLD GLORY MUST WAVE
SLUMBER SONG ALONE
A HAPPY LOT
GOD REIGNS OVER ALL